He mentioned that FMAAA has sent out RFP packets for HICAP, the Title III E Family Caregiver Support Program, the Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program, Title III B Legal Assistance, the Title III C Home Delivered Meals Program and Senior Hot Lunch Program, and Title III C for a Registered Dietitian.
- xiii. Miles R recognized Social Work Care Manager Adrian P. for her active participation and willingness to volunteer for outreach events. Miles noted the “crazy busy” outreach season and how Adiana really made a difference.

VII. Reports:

a. Advisory Council Chair Report:

- i. This report was made by Chair Mike Bishop.

ii. Advisory Council Membership Status:

1. Current Vacancies: 2 Fresno County, 6 Madera County, and 1 City of Fresno.

2. The Advisory Council has significant vacancies. Efforts to recruit from Madera have been challenging despite offering mileage reimbursement.
3. Membership Criteria: 50% of the Advisory Council members must be aged 60 and older. Joint Powers of Authority (JPA) representation needed from each service area (City of Fresno, City of Madera County, and Fresno County).

iii. Brief Announcements of Upcoming Events

1. Chair Mike Bishop reported on his and Anne Bishop's Legacy Planning Workshop series and how it is designed to prepare individuals for the next steps of their lives and ensure they have all their paperwork, finances, and other key information documented and accounted for.
2. Minerva Garcia reported on an event in downtown Clovis with food and activities for individuals of all ages.
3. Minerva Garcia requested that more information be shared with the Council about upcoming activities and events for older adults. Miles R. mentioned that he tries to include flyers for upcoming events in the Advisory Council Agenda Packets whenever possible but will strive to provide more information in the agendas.

b. Committee Updates and Reports:

i. Food and Resource Insecurity Report:

1. Committee Chair, Angela Stillwell reported that the committee continues to meet and that their current task is to convert the Food and Resource list into a printer friendly version that is easy to read.

ii. Housing Insecurity Committee Report:

1. Anne Bishop reported that her committee did not have any updates at the time of the meeting but planned to meet again soon. Miles R. mentioned the errors that were noted on the FMAAA Housing List and explained that they were corrected during the annual review and the update to the new resource format. Miles R. stated that he would share the updated resource with the membership.
2. Angela S. reported that Fresno Housing Authority is pursuing grants for a senior-only housing complex near the Clovis Senior Center and new library, with an estimated 2026–2027 timeline. The project includes about 80 units, elevator access, and income-based rent capped at 30 percent including utilities. She noted high demand at other Section 8 sites, suggested connecting the housing work group with Fresno Housing leadership to coordinate partnerships and referrals, and encouraged supporting local seniors with applications and accessing available units.

c. Governing Board Meeting:

- i. Miles R. reported that the Governing Board met Wednesday, November 12, 2025, at the Fig Garden Library with quorum achieved and noted that meetings are held on the second Wednesday of each month and open to the public, though they may be canceled if there is no new business. He shared that One Time Only funds were approved for contract amendments for the Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program, Title III D, Title III E, MIPPA, and HICAP programs.

d. California Senior Legislative Report:

- i. CSL Representative Minerva Garcia reported that the top ten legislative proposals affecting older adults were shared and members were encouraged to contact their local representatives, including Assemblymember Arambula. She noted the long history of senior-focused proposals passed over the years, the need for improved training for council representatives, and ongoing teleconference and open meeting requirements. Minerva emphasized the importance of evaluating cost, benefit, and community impact, and highlighted participation levels and vacancies across counties. Members were encouraged to review the proposals and stay engaged with local and state legislators.

e. Triple-A Council of California (TACC) Report:

- i. Tonya Frost reported that she attended the TACC and C4A Conference in Orange County on November 5–7. She highlighted the nine breakout sessions she attended and shared how valuable it was to interact with individuals from across the state. She noted that each day was full but very educational. Tonya also highlighted a presentation by LA County APA on their Tactical Team, which is used for extreme cases and involves multiple groups working together. She added that Kyle Pennington from her Aging Veterans Coalition presented at a breakout session, describing it as two worlds colliding.

VIII. Fresno-Madera Area Agency on Aging Administrative Update:

- a. Miles R. gave the following updates:
 - i. FMAAA is working to open Parlier and Del Rey as congregate nutrition sites.

IX. Adjournment: The meeting was adjourned at 2:42 pm. The motion was made by Jan Clagg and seconded by Anne Bishop. The motion carried.

Respectfully Submitted,

Miles Robinson
